++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing to leave a dry night.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely wet start, but rain soon easing during the evening, with clear spells developing. Dry for all by midnight, with winds easing and some mist or fog patches possible by dawn in prone rural spots. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
Fine, with morning sunshine perhaps turning hazier later in the day, along with some areas of cloud developing. Winds increasing with the risk of a shower later. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Breezy Friday, with sunny spells, and just the chance of a light shower. Mainly dry and fine Saturday. Turning wetter, and perhaps windy Sunday, with rain spreading northeast.
